We come together as a collective force advancing the Republican Party and women through political access and participation.

President's Message - Gwen Barrett

Happy Valentine's Day	2/14/16
Happy Presidents Day - Washington, Lincoln & Reagan	2/15/16
ARW - General Meeting	2/18/16
Happy Presidential Caucus	2/23/16

We started off with our retreat planning for 2016. We welcome new members to our board - Patty Pennisie and her assistant Maria Elena Lawbaugh will be handling Caring for our Vets/Military projects. Bring toiletries and store coupons for Military and Patty will collect. Carol Noblet is our Americanism Chairwoman - giving us the Pledge of Allegiance and historical information. Janet Reiber will assist with Program committee and Melissa Gokmogol will assist with communications.

We had 75 attend our January general meeting which included Congressman Jason Chaffetz of Utah who brought us up to date with Washington, including a great position change in getting things done with our new house speaker, Paul Ryan. We also had 2 of (6 total) our 3rd Congressional Dist. Candidates speak - Andy Matthews and Danny Tarkanian.

This month continues with more of our 3rd Congressional Dist. Candidates and don't forget the most important date of this year for you to express your personal choice for your parties candidate - on Tues, Feb 23rd at our Republican Caucus. Many are still needed to help out so please take part and help in the beginning of this historic event - choosing our candidate for President of the U.S.A.

We received clarification from NFRW on potential issues with Democratic candidates that may wish to attend our meetings. The answer is no. According to NFRW bylaws, our purpose is to work for Republican candidates in all elections, including non-partisan elections. Also note, we do not allow audio/video recording at our meetings. I ask all membership to be vigilant in these matters and notify your Board if you know of any infractions.

Ladies, your hard work is paying off! Our numbers are increasing fast! So please RSVP early for our meetings so we have enough seating and dinners for everyone! PayPal makes it very easy!
