President's Message

Cristina Cimino

Greetings to all ARW members and

Congratulations to our longtime ARW member, Barbara Cegavske, for her reelection as the Nevada Secretary of State.

It is my pleasure to welcome the new board. I am looking forward to working with this dynamic group of ladies.

It is nice to see new members being active in the planning and putting these plans to work. We hope to see an ARW that is united and working together to accomplish our goals, and the feeling that we will work in harmony for whatever we want to achieve.

This coming February meeting will be a chance to get to know more about our members, to inform you what the Executive Board and the board are working on.

I encourage you to volunteer to serve on one of our committees, and to get to know each other better. Our retreat was more of a workshop wherein ideas were brought to the table and it was not a surprise to see everyone so motivated. The participation of each and every one was so inspiring. We are discovering our talents and how to use them to the advantage of the Club.

We also want to welcome our new members to the ARW family and make them feel that they belong.

The National Federation of Republican Women is encouraging all republicans to contact their legislators in Washington in sup-

ARWLV Membership News

This February, be prepared to meet your members and feel more like family.

We need to know our neighbors, who are right here in ARW. We're going to meet and mingle and play a game or two. The February meeting is the time to bring a friend, co-worker or client. Invite them to be a part of this exciting organization!

I want to hear from you, with any thoughts you might have on how ARWLV can be more active in the community.

Have a cause that you might want help on? Ask a fellow ARW member... Lets start working together as ONE I'm just an email away.

Yours truly,

Trish Messinger,
Membership Chair
